The Cyprus Journal of Sciences

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Cyprus Journal of Sciences is a refereed publication with an international character and a broad perspective. The journal covers a wide spectrum of areas of interest, including among others, Humanities and Social Sciences, Pure and Applied Sciences, Economics and Management. It publishes empirical, theoretical and methodological articles. Survey research, commentaries and book reviews are also of interest.

Manuscripts should begin with a cover page indicating the title (Times new Roman, size 12) of the paper and the full address (i.e., author's name, affiliation, address, telephone number, fax number, and email address) for each author (in Times New Roman, size 12). The second page should repeat the title and contain an abstract (in Times New Roman, size 10, in italics) of no more than 100 words. Keywords (in Times New Roman, italics, size 9) should appear below the abstract, highlighting the main topics of the paper. The text (in Times new Roman, size 11, double space and the special about the paragraphs should be first line by 0.6 cm) should begin on page 3 and as far as possible should not exceed 7,000 words. Paragraphs should be numbered, be in capital letters and in the middle of the page. Sub-paragraphs should be numbered, be in small letters, in italics and the paragraph should be first line by 0.6 cm. Affiliations and acknowledgements should appear as a footnote (in Times New Roman, size 10) at the bottom of the first page and should be preceded by an asterisk. Where possible, affiliations should include the author's rank, department and institution. Footnotes should be labeled NOTES (be numbered) and should appear at the end of the main text. Bibliographies should be labeled REFERENCES and should be listed alphabetically at the end of the main text without numbering them. Authors should adopt the following style:

Arestis, P. and Demetriades, P. (1997). Financial development and economic growth: assessing the evidence. The Economic Journal, 107(442), pp. 783-799.

Enders, W. (1995). Applied Econometric Time Series. John Wiley & Sons, Inc.

In the text itself, these should be cited either:

Arestis and Demetriades (1997) and Enders (1995) or (Arestis and Demetriades, 1997) and (Enders, 1995).

Tables and Figures should be numbered, titled and the source should be mentioned below them. Appendices should appear after the NOTES but before the REFERENCES. Photographs in the text are preferable to be in black and white. The typeface for notes, appendices and references should be in Times New Roman, size 11 and the content of notes, appendices and references should be in Times New Roman, size 10. The margins used are: left and right margins 1.5 cm, top and bottom 2.5 cm. From edge the heater should be 1 cm and the footer should be 1.2 cm. When mailed electronically the paper size should be width 16.5 cm and length 23.5 cm. You may email a copy of the submission as an attachment to research@ac.ac.cy in Microsoft Word format. The attachment must be ONE file that includes all components of the manuscript (i.e., title page, abstract, paper, endnotes, appendices and references). Alternatively manuscripts can be submitted via mail. If mailed, authors should include a copy of the manuscript on standard A4 paper and, a disk containing ONE file that includes all components of the manuscript with the specifications mentioned above.
